

Residential Learning Tips

Mr. Carter, Residential Learning Coordinator

Hello, my name is Mr. Carter, a Residential Learning Coordinator at Walnut Hill College for almost 5 years. In addition, I am a member of the Pennsylvania Army National Guard, and have served one tour-of-duty in Afghanistan.

I am currently finishing up my degree at Penn State University, Abington in Criminal Justice and a minor in Military Science.

Some of my interests are music, concert production and producing new talent. During my spare time I spend a lot of time analyzing music. I am also studying real estate. I'm a huge sports fan and most definitely the biggest Dallas Cowboys and LA Lakers fan.

My goal is to make sure that every student feels our RL buildings are your home-away-from-home. I want to give each student an enjoyable experience in Residential Learning. Each student's safety and security is very important to the college and me, therefore, each student should always have good safety habits. Enjoy the activities and get involved. I can assure you, you'll have a great time on campus while doing what you love.

My advice for new Residential Learning students is to enjoy your time on campus, get to know University City, and make new friends. Always respect yourself, your roommates, the college staff and the policies set forth by the college.

My mission is to provide each Residential Learning student with the most positive and fun experience. I oversee all aspects related to life on campus and my door is always open for any questions that students or parents may have.

I am on duty between 5:00 pm to 3:00 A.M. Wednesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday. I am usually located in the Security Pavilion and always walking the campus grounds.

I can be reached at 215-783-0709 or through email: ccarter@walnuthillcollege.edu. Add my name, direct cell phone and email address into your phone. I look forward to welcoming you on campus.

Mr. Floyd, Residential Learning Coordinator

Hello my name is Mr. Floyd. I am a Residential Learning Coordinator at Walnut Hill College. I am currently finishing up my degree in behavioral health and moving forward with a Bachelors degree in social work.

My interests are mentoring at-risk youth, playing chess, and reading psychology books. I love all sports and I am a big Green Bay Packers fan. I love poetry and someday hope to find enough courage to recite in front of an audience.

My goal is to provide each Residential Learning student with answers to your questions, and to help to get you get acclimated to college life. My door is always open to address any assistance you may need.

My best advice for incoming students is if you are not sure of something simply ask, and always refer to your Residential Learning handbook.

I am on duty between 5:00 PM to 3:00 AM on Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, and Friday. I am located in the Security Pavilion and am always walking the campus making sure everyone is doing well.

I can be reached on the Residential Learning phone which is 215-783-0709 or through email: rfloyd@walnuthillcollege.edu. Please add my number and email in your phone. I plan on meeting each and every one of you personally and welcoming you on campus.
